"My wife had pimples on her face, but she has been taking CASCARETS and they have all disappeared. I had been troubled with constipation for some time, but after taking the first Cascarets I have had no trouble with this ailment. We cannot speak too highly of Cascarets." ## CARTER'S POND PICNIC

home, with the bottle of fresh milk to add zest to his repast.

The dancing floor was in trim and the Haggins boys on hand with their music. But, strange to say, not a terpsichorean step was taken by the gallant lad, and charming lassies, and the floor was left entirely to the little tots, which little Alice Sexton occupied to the intense delight of the older ones looking on.

The jovial "Hat" Barnett and his dozen or more grandchildren, were in the throng, and "Hat" got more fun out of it than a score of staid duffers who can't see and enjoy a joke if thrown on a 12x12 canvass. "Hat" says he is strictly in the agricultural ranks this season, having ceased to "play" gentleman. Speaking of corn, he said he had a record breaking crop. "Tail," remarked an interested bystander. Then "Hat" took an altitudinous look and said, "powerful, tremendous ears, way up. Am ready to contract for a thousand step ladders to gather it," and Professor Lyle took the contract on the spot and "Hat" changed his quid.

But back to the dance question. Professor Lyle explained the absence of the two step motion and the "languid glide" to the fact that the present generation of young people belonged to the church and had discarded the dance. Croquet beguiled many, while the Carter's fleet constituted the regatta of the sparkling waters and how the maidens fair, with their escorts, enjoyed gliding over its translucent waves.

Here again "Hat" Barnett's peculiar genius shone resplendent with his boat, "Alice," put all others to shame for its graceful outlines are the handiwork of "Hat," who said she ought to, as he was almost born on the water.

The Ocalians present besides those already mentioned, were Mrs. Spellman and Spurlin, Mrs. Tom Saxton, Mrs. W. W. Clyatt, Elmore Davidson, with black and blue eyed beauties, Mr. Baxter Carn, Mrs. M. J. Tanner, Jas. Duffy and son, Don McIver, through his proxy.

The only thing to mar the occasion was a nest of yellow jackets, which got onto a horse belonging to a colored man, and stung so terribly by them that the animal died.

Newton Barco, the enterprising and gentlemanly young trucker of that section, was among the socially admired, as was the graceful and handsome lady under his charge.

Mr. Sumter Brooks, the successful young merchant of Old Town, was greeting many friends, as was Mr. Beil, who holds a very lucrative position among the phosphate plants of the west end.

Report was current that Rev. M. S. Moser and family thought seriously of leaving Marion county for Tennessee. The Star sincerely hopes it is only a rumor, for the county is loath to lose so excellent and estimable people.

Mr. Thagard was the oil wizard of the party and had oilology down pat and returned home with a handkerchief full of sure enough oliginous rocks. If he don't strike it, it will only be because his rod is too short. Keep your eye on the tax collector.

If there was a genuine lady's man present, and socially was in the swim with the fair sex, it was our good looking urbane and serene tax collector.

Those whose presence was missed were Mr. and Mrs. Dow Beck, Captain McDavid and the political philosopher of the section, Mr. Charles Haycraft. There were others, but time is up, and a pleasant day spent with more congenial people would be hard to find.

The ladies outnumbered the men and shone resplendently in their attractive gowns that are purely woman's portion.

Those who dispensed refreshments were J. S. Smith, George Mills and N. Barco. The crowd was well served. Crops looked well.

Mrs. S. H. Brown of LeRoy will please accept thanks of the editor of the Star and Mr. Zewadski for the splendid dinner which was so much enjoyed by us.

HEAR HER!

A WOMAN'S STORY.

This is to certify that I have been afflicted with Scrofula or Blood Poison for a number of years. The best physicians of Mobile and this city said nothing could be done for me. I took large quantities of medicine, and when I was sent to a physician in Mobile my entire body was a mass of sores. I had given up all hope, and as a last resort tried P. P. P., and after using four bottles (small size), the sores have entirely disappeared, and my general health was never better than at the present time, and people that know me think it a wonderful cure. ELIZA TODD, Milton, Fla.

What can be worse for a woman than an otherwise beautiful skin covered with sores and eruptions? Can you blame people for avoiding women thus afflicted? They are to be pitied; but what woman wants pity? Besides the humiliation of disfigurement, the itching and burning of skin diseases are almost unbearable.

All women ought to know that all facial and bodily blemishes are caused by impure blood, and are curable. P. P. P. will purify the blood, and when the blood becomes pure all skin diseases vanish.

P. P. P. is a harmless vegetable compound, and never fails to eradicate from the system all traces of Blood Poison, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia and Catarrhal affections.

FROM ONE OF SAVANNAH'S PROMINENT MERCHANTS.

I herewith recommend to the sufferers of Rheumatism and rheumatic pains, Lippman's P. P. P., as I have can fully tested it and found permanent relief. Also my son, who, for years, has suffered from Rheumatism, has used it for the last year with good results, and has not suffered since, and is still using it. Would not do without it if it cost double, or at any price. Yours truly, CHAS. SEILER.
